

The Coaching Perspective

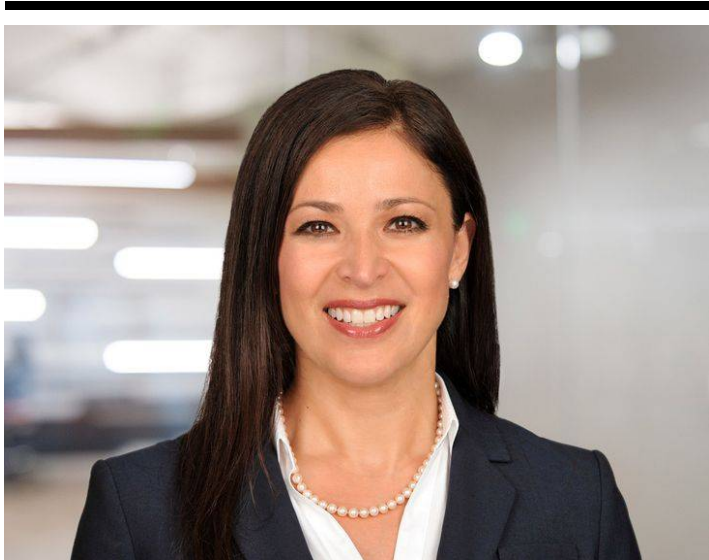

News

9.25.11

Grace Horoupian, a partner in the Irvine office, was interviewed on Critical Mass: The Coaching Perspective Radio Show on September 25. Grace stressed the importance of preventive counseling to help avoid litigation and legal fees. The most important advice she offered to employers is to train themselves and their supervisors and to take advantage of available resources. She said, "Be sure you have good open communication with sources that can tell you whether or not what you do is compliant with the law."
