Section 105(c) of the Mine Act: An Introduction

The Mine Act contains a robust whistleblower provision that affords certain rights to miners and prohibits certain actions by employers. But like all laws, Section 105(c) contains specific nuances. In this episode, Arthur and Chris will review Section 105(c) of the Mine Act and discuss each element of a whistleblower claim. They will also discuss what it looks like in real life when a whistleblower claim is filed and investigated. Finally, they will offer practical tips for employers to be mindful of considering this important legal provision.
